

4th May Practice building site update

Work on the new practice premises is all going to plan. The steel foundations of the practice are currently being installed and the spacious car park area is also being stripped. The lower portion of the building is set to be concreted within the next 10 days followed by the masonry structure to support the walls within the next 14 days.